D E D I C

TO MR. LEONARD, WHO HAS SERVED US AS TEACHER AND PRINCIPAL, AND TO OUR FOUR SENIOR SPONSORS—FOR THEIR PATIENCE, THEIR SACRIFICES, AND THAT FAITH IN THE PRESENT AND HOPE FOR THE FUTURE THAT THEY HAVE INSTILLED IN US; FOR THAT SPIRIT OF DEMOCRACY WHICH RATES US AT OUR REAL WORTH AND ELIMINATES FALSE VALUES; FOR THAT FINE SPIRIT OF CHRISTIAN FRIENDLINESS AND HAPPINESS WHICH MAKES LIVING TRULY ENJOYABLE; AND THAT FEELING THAT ALTHOUGH THERE SHOULD BE PLENTY OF FUN IN LIFE, WORK IS THE REAL MISSION, WE THE CLASS OF 1936 SINCERELY DEDICATE THIS DOE-WAH-JACK.

OUR PAST

IN the year 1932 a group of students, bubbling with hope and enthusiasm, boarded the "Ship of B. H. S.," for a four year cruise in search of knowledge.

Having embarked at Freshman Port, the blaring "green-eyed" group showed a sense of uneasiness. With the sudden change of scenes the group was somewhat bewildered. Instead of being carefree people, they assumed a more thoughtful attitude, and soon, under the masterful supervision of Mr. C. E. Buckner and his co-workers, the groups was assembled—each in the place which would best suit him for the life to be lived after the four year voyage.

The depression, occurring in the year of 1932, seemed to cast a more decided gloom over our class; but in spite of this fact several decisive events occurred. A book rental system, which proved more satisfactory to the majority of students was installed. Mr. H. M. Roland became our new superintendent. The school term was shortened to eight months, thus causing examinations to stare the Freshmen in the face sooner than ever before. The shortened term, however, didn't prove to be a great disadvantage, for we had accomplished enough to carry us safely into the Sophomore year.

September, 1933—Vacation is ended. We again set sail, trying to make this year more successful than the preceding. We greet practically the same smiling faces, but a few have fallen behind. Sophomore days are a mixture of merriments and disappointments. From A's on Latin to E's on Algebra; from the "Whirly-burly" of the Home Economics room to the thrilling excitement of the Athletic field, we go. In the meantime we give Student Government a fair try-out, and the ball rolls on.

September, 1934—A happy group of students scuffle on board the ship to continue their third year in search of knowledge. As Juniors we are filled with great expectations. More learned and able to help) we aid in reviving The Barker, the school paper. We also plan our Junior-Senior banquet, which goes over in a big way. Student Government continues to accomplish its goal and athletics continue to rank high. After examinations we patiently wait for our next and supposedly last year.

September, 1935—As in a dream our goal is reached—the goal of all Seniors. With a dignified and learned air, we survivors of last year's turmoil load our ship for our final and most important cruise. Along with our final year comes our new principal, the likeable Mr. E. C. Leonard. During these eight months we accomplish one of the greatest things a class is able to accomplish—that of seeing real Student Government aims realized; that of leaving such a valuable goal for the remaining classes to follow. We enlarge the school paper and revive our much-missed clubs under the supervision of new and strong faculty leaders. The dream becomes a grave reality, and now we are each ready to set forth in the world—"paddling our own canoe."

To sum up the work of this great class of 1936 let it be stated: They set sail for a four year cruise in 1932, during the world's deep depression, and came through with a smile in 1936, a record which no other class has yet made. They put real Student Government into action; they revived and enlarged the school paper; they put new and old clubs back into motion and they have published the best and most unusual annual ever yet to be published. May this record continue! And may each individual survivor paddle fast in his canoe—reaching his or her great aim in the outside world.

Much credit is due our superintendent, principal, and faculty, for the success of the class of 1936; we bestow many thanks upon them.

MARTHA THOMPSON.

OUR FUTURE

One breezy morning in April, 1950, I was sauntering down Broadway. A sudden jolt brought my thoughts down to earth—and grief. I had a bruised knee, and Dolph Sorrell was the cause of it all. I hadn't seen Dolph since we were back in Burlington High, so I asked him what he knew about all our former classmates, in the meantime forgiving him for knocking me down.

He told me that Hubert Heartwale had recently flown a rocket ship of his own invention to the planet Jupiter. He had a microphone and piano on the ship, and broadcasted back to Old Mother Earth.

Guess who the first woman senator from North Carolina is? None other than Eleanor Horner. And Ella Rae Burke is private secretary to the President. Marguerite Phillips has been appointed to aid the President in ridding the country of the National Debt, caused by the last administration. Miss Phillips has studied economics since high school.

Charlie Chaplin was on his death bed when he heard of Lenwood Clark, but he wired immediately for "Skinny" to come and take his place.

Walter Cooper, voted one of the world's best dressed men for the past three years, and De Roy Fonville, Professor of French at Harvard, are both that way about Susie George, tap dancer, known as the second Eleanor Powell.

Elizabeth Warlick is on the "Educational Staff" at Elon. Mary Alice Creunshaw was until she gave it up for a beauty salon.

Rebecca Smith has settled down to the humdrum existence of being the wife of philanderer A. G. Horner, manufacturer of Beauty Rest Mattresses.

Gladys Moore, Louise Garrison, Margaret Snyder, Delliha Isley, Ila Mae Murray, Lula Mae Braxton, Louise Beckom, Mary Dunn, Ernestine Durham, Jessie Garrison, and Onnie Smith are successfully managing homes and husbands. "The hound that rocks the cradle rules the world."

Although Robert Gammon wasn't in favor of being elected governor of North Carolina, he could do nothing about it because the vote was unanimous.

Argie Hinshaw is married, but joint owner of Bivens' Cafeterias, located in Burlington, Haw River, Elon and Graham.

Kathryn Troxler is a famous mannequin in New York City, while Doris Perkins, holding down her title "Miss America," is out to win the contest for "Miss Universe."

At last I've found out who thinks up all those awful crossword puzzles—Fred Isley.

Kendall Moran and Earl Way are well-paid big league players.

Charlie McCauley is Thomas Haynes' assistant. Mr. Haynes is internationally known as a scientific wizard.

Lately newspapers said that the Wrigley and Beech-nut Gum companies are under the management of Adolphus Sorrell.

Richard King and Raymond Winstead are busy doing illustrations for most of the famous magazines.

Burman Bare and Carolyn Pittman Bare are at present trying to keep three little "bears" out of mischief.

Lottie Pruitt is a dancing instructor, giving lessons at "Pruitt's School of Dancing," located in the Bank Building.

Bill Pugh has started a nationwide clean-up movement; Earl Kirkman, state patrolman, is enforcing all motor laws; and Earl Patterson, well-known politician, is running again for a congressional post.

The front row of chorus girls in Ernest Koury's Vanities are Inez Wilkerson, Ruby Lee Webster, Helen Walker, Laura Thompson, Allegra Davis, and Marguerite Robertson.

Jack Biggsby, Jack Perry and George Ross are members of the President's Cabinet, sometimes known as the "Bruin Trust."

I have an invitation to visit the Countess of Cartagena (formerly Ima Melver) next summer.

Stanley Lowe, celebrated explorer, has just returned from Africa where he encountered numerous wild animals.

Sara Cates is choir director at the "Little Church Around the Corner" in New York.

A book on "How to Eat Heartily and Still Be Slender" was lately written by horseback riding advocate, Marjion Traynham.

Max Wagouer owns the Publix-Kinexy theaters in North Carolina. Martha Thompson, extra, has attained stardom. Her director, A. G. Thompson, says she is a hit. Martha Clapp is dietitian for the stars.

Issac Terrell has married his Mildred, and is very, very happy. Wayne Holt has also married.

Henry Snipes is one of those great financiers in Wall Street. However, Curtis Hunter can give you a good tip, too.

Billy Walker owns a thriving grocery store, and Jack Sessoms, a drug store, in East Burlington.

Francis Davis recently invented a new typing system. It really works.

Floyd Macomson, after making airplane models for years, built a real one, and any time you can see him flying around in it.

Mildred Isley now owns the largest sandwich shop in the United States.

Virginia Spoon took over the management of the Bryan chain of grocery stores after the death of her husband.

Aside from her position of nurse, Maida Lee makes beautiful articles for the handwork counter of a department store. Marie Hearne has a large pattern-making plant in Raleigh, N. C.

William Wheeler is in Hollywood, doubling for Mickey Mouse.

Sony Vaughn is coaching basketball for dear old B. H. S. His teams are champions every year.

Margaret Phillips Hogan is contented with just being Irving's housekeeper.

Francis Jones is Walter Johnson's secretary. Walter is editor of the Daily Times-News.

Stanford Hudgins, managing Hudgins' Grocery, resides in Glen Raven, a suburb of Burlington.

When I received a letter from Carolyn Andrews the other day she told me she was chief librarian at the Congressional Library in Washington. As a side line, she writes short stories, while Martha Rose Sharpe, former magazine editor, has turned successfully to writing scenarios for Warner Brothers studios.

Robah Cole and Edith Beckom long ago eloped to Danville. I'm sure they're perfectly happy.

We all remember Jack Baynes, "the boy with the great big smile." He's busy smiling on Broadway.

At last Margaret Lambeth has landed a poor fish—after throwing out "lines" all her life.

Traveling with Baruum, Bailey and Ringling Brothers Circus are Ivor Cook, trapeze artist, and Ruth Fuqua, bareback rider.

Luther Garner is owner of Bill and Bob Cafe, and has changed it to "Shike and Shiny Cafe."

Carleen Bryan, Ruth Moser, and Woodrow Bolick are winners of the last Talkathon; no one was able to outtalk the others.

John Bulla and Kenneth Boland were chosen by the President to be Ambassador to Italy and Secretary of State.

Our own Bill Chandler has turned out to be a famous violinist. I didn't know it was in the boy.

A popular foursome over the radio these days is Sam Webster, pianist, Liberty Vaughn, Gwyn Stewart and Elizabeth Spoon, singers. Murry Haney, blues singer, broadcasts nightly, too.

Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire stepped out of the spotlight when Sam Pitch and Louise Hickey came along.

Mittie Hobby is clanking in Tiffany's, New York. It seems that jewelry is her "hobby."

Lillie Lane Stordivant married after leaving high school. The man who "ringed" her one day was the lucky guy.

Whenever you're in a little jam, just telephone Lawyer Ruth Walters; she will get you out of it in a jiffy.

Iris Shepherd, girl hitch-hiker, claims she can go from New York to Los Angeles in a day or so. (P. S.—The reason—she catches rides with airmail pilots.)

Ralph Goins and Marvin Coble, boxing champions, are soon to fight each other for the title.

Among those to receive prizes for broadcasting over the amateur hour was S. B. King, a harmonica player.

Ron. Graves is laughingly called the filibuster of the Senate.

Living in a little studio in New York, Margaret Byrd designs clothes. Just among us, I wouldn't be surprised if she would end up in one of those state institutions—you can guess which one.

MARGARET BYRD, Prophetess.

CLASS SONG

"Ship of Education"
Tune: "Shipmates Forever"

Schoolmates stand together, don't give up the ship.
Fair or stormy weather, we won't give up, we won't give up the ship.
Friends and Pals forever, it's a four year's trip
If you have to take a licking, carry on without your licking,
Don't give up the ship.

Classmates stand together, with great loyalty
To our Alma Mater, true we'll ever, true we'll ever be.
Tho' we leave behind us, dear old B. H. S.
Long in memory we shall cherish. Thoughts of you will never perish
So We Say "Farewell."

MISS YOUNG'S SENIOR GIRLS.

CLASS POEM

The time draws nigh when we must part
Into the realm of mystic art.
Sincerely we hope the foundation is laid,
That we're not to reap the grave errors we've made,
Nor into the world, as we care-free are thrown,
Glean harvests of grain from seeds we've sown;
Yet happy and gay, we conquer our fears,
And laugh in the face of failures and sneers;
So we're saying "Farewell," not in jest, but to win
Great fame and a name for our nearest of kin—
B. H. S.!

We're tracing life backward with rapid glance—
The hard-fought days with the forlorn chance—
The days of joy, the days of pain,
When mirth seemed lost and joy was vain;

But if our labors are richly repaid,
We shall thank the school where once we strayed.
We're leaving good friends so happily won,
From whom we part like the setting sun;
God grant that those who staid our fears
May be nobly rewarded in after years!
Again we look back on the long-run course,
Realizing the things that have made for force,
That will carry us well through the world to success,
While cheering our hearts, making sorrow the less;
Before us we see there the dreary, cold world,
Which seems so uncertain—a wild, busy whirl!
We move from the gate, yet sad, yet gay,
Toward the vast unknown that leads far away
From old, easy things, and that which we've known;
We now turn our backs and face FUTURE, alone.

ELLA RAE BURKE, 36.

OUR GIFT TO YOU

STATE: NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY: ALAMANCE
CITY: BURLINGTON

AFTER mastering all of our hardships and now being willing to trudge homeward, we, the Senior Class of '36 do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our beloved Faculty, we leave our high standards, loving disposition, excellent grades, and another Senior Class to comfort them in our absence.

ARTICLE II

To Mr. Leonard, we leave the pleasure of having been principal during our last successful year, knowing that without his cooperation, and boosting we would never have achieved the top.

ARTICLE III

To the Juniors, we leave our honored seats in chapel, attaching the agony of keeping awake, of remaining quiet, and of attempting to appear intelligent.

ARTICLE IV

To the Sophomores, we leave our ever increasing knowledge of worldly affairs and our hope that some day they may be as brilliant as we.

ARTICLE V

To the Freshmen, we leave our ladder—that they may climb to the top and be as successful as we have been.

ARTICLE VI

To the incoming Freshmen, we leave our motto—"We're not on top but Climbing" and our class colors—old rose and silver.

ARTICLE VII

Certain individuals do bequeath as follows:

Carolyn Andrews cooperates with the school by willing Archie Haney her knowledge.

Louise Hickey wills her daintiness to Hazel Andrews.

Francis Davis leaves his position as typist to anyone who is capable of handling the work as well as he.

Louise Garrison leaves her quiet and demure ways to Ruth Moore.

Carolyn Pittman and Earle Patterson, leave their positions as cheer leaders to Marion Goodes and Manley Meachem and beseech them to keep up the B. H. S. school spirit.

Hubert Heatwole wills his musical talent to Alese Coleman, on condition that she practice ten hours a day.

Rebecca Smith leaves her many admirers to "Joe" Baker, trusting she will not take advantage of her absence.

Thomas Haynes leaves Petie Neese his mathematical ability. Perhaps some day Petie may take Mr. Rhodes' place.

Curleen Bryan leaves her "specs" to Rebecca Lightbourne—she needs them.

Sam Fitch wills his "way with the girls" to Porter Lea.

Margaret Byrd wills her extreme height to Marjorie Southerland.

Adolphus Sorrell wills his position as center on the basketball team to Jim Montgomery, hoping his high scores will keep climbing.

Marguerite Phillips wills her attractiveness to Agnes Campbell.

Burman Bare wills his title as "best athlete" to Howard Patterson.

Kathryn Troxler and Ima McIver will their excessive use of lipstick to Adeline Storey and Annie Strader.

Lenwood Clark wills his vast knowledge of French to Billy Stokes.

De Roy Fonville wills his studious disposition to Harry Martin.

Allegra Davis wills her success at flirting on class and between periods to Mary Belle Covington.

Eleanor Horner wills her "petite" figure to Lurline Ross.

Margaret Phillips leaves her excellent standing among the teachers to Elizabeth Cobb.

A. G. Horner wills his stalwart and striking physique to George Koury.

Ella Rae Burke wills her class loyalty to Edgar Dameron—knowing it is in good hands.

Romulus Graves wills his ability to speak before an audience to Bessie Williams.

Ruth Moser and Iris Shepherd leave their constant laughing and giggling to Sara Walker and Mildred Howell.

Sara Cates leaves her complete understanding of "parliamentary procedure" to Granville Sharpe.

Virginia Spoon leaves her cute expressions—a gift from a last year's Senior, to Vera Dale Allison—and requests that they be passed on from year to year.

Bob Gammon leaves his position of Student Body President to Sam Forrester, hoping that Sam will endeavor to gain the school's cooperation.

The remaining Seniors leave their good will to the incoming Seniors.

ARTICLE VIII

In testimony whereof, we hereby appoint Mr. E. C. Leonard as sole executor, with instructions that he is to carry out faithfully the terms of the foregoing instrument. In the name of Education, Amen!

Witnesses:

RUTH WALTERS.

E. C. Leonard,
M. Z. Rhodes,
Mrs. J. A. Hunter.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

GOOD evening, ladies and gentlemen! This is Station B.H.S., broadcasting the news of current interest. Let us look back three years and review the historical highlights of the class of '37.

The day of reckoning has come for two hundred and thirty timid looking boys and girls standing on the campus of the Broad Street High School. The time has come for which they have waited throughout the grammar grades; they are entering High School. They are about to become freshmen of the Mecca of all good grammar grade students. The bell rings and they saunter into the building. Then issues a wild scramble for classrooms amid the hoots and jeers of the swell-headed sophomores! Finally, after much hustle and bustle, they settle down to work. They select for their leader, Dan Jackson, who did an excellent piece of work. Most of the students have come from different schools and the rest of the year is spent in getting acquainted with one other. They also aided in installing Student Government.

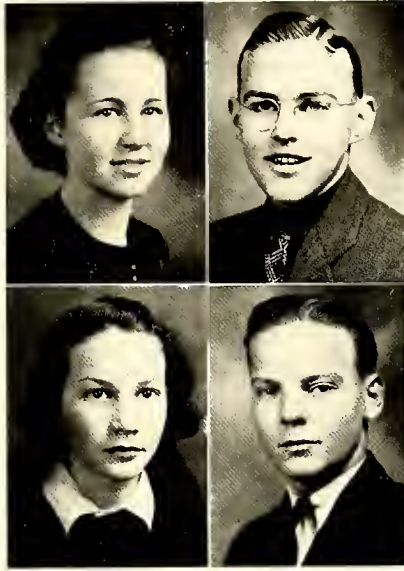

Attention, radio listeners! If you wish to have schoolgirl complexion, try Itemized Fleast.

Again we look down upon the campus of Broad Street High School. One hundred and seventy-seven students from last year's freshman class are ready to go back to work. This year the sophomore class is to be divided into two groups. A ninth grade has been set up at Hillcrest, and there are sixty sophomores enrolled there. They have selected Holt Barnwell to lead them while Ruth Moore has been elected head of the Sophomore class at Broad Street. They also greet the incoming Freshmen with Bronx cheers and boos! They strut around in front of them and "show them how it's done." Soon they let up, however, and start to work in earnest. Many of them join clubs, become members of the Barker Staff or Student Council, and some go out for the various sports and a few obtained letters for their good work.

Another announcement, Ladies and Gentlemen! Don't fear indigestion. Use Hal Sepatica and smile the smile of health.

There they are ready to take up where they left off last year at good old Broad Street. This year they get organized much quicker than in '35. Out of one hundred and seventy-two boys and girls, Charles Stewart is chosen president of the class. This year a large number join clubs and various other organizations. They select their class ring and are sure that it is the prettiest that any class has had yet. Plans are made for the traditional Junior-Senior banquet and everyone is eagerly awaiting this longed-for event. Numbers of the boys make the varsity teams in different sports and secure monograms. The Junior year is all that has been expected and even more. This is Station B.H.S. signing off until further notice of a future broadcast. Be sure to listen in, Ladies and Gentlemen, in 1937 to the further events of this history-making class.

BILLY STOKES, '37.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

IN September 1934, we boarded the planetary rocket B. H. S. and started out earnestly for the Planet of Knowledge. Since the Planet was many study years away, we elected a few officers to help us keep up our high spirits. As President we elected Jack Faucette, Vice President, Gladys Gammon, and Secretary-Treasurer, Earl King. To the Barker staff we elected Glenna Teer and Marjorie Hunter, and of the Annual Staff was Elwood Pearce. Juanita Owens and Mary Elizabeth Guyer were alternates on the debating team, and Sara Trollinger was elected to the Student Council. Besides these officers and representatives we had several members of the class in the Band and Orchestra, and also quite a number of students out for various sports. To instruct and to encourage us in our journey we had some very efficient teachers. These were Mrs. Graham, Miss Harden, Miss Parker, and Mr. Reep.

Of the several socials we had during the year, the most enjoyable was the one given by Miss Sara Trollinger at her home a few days before Christmas, when she entertained her 8-B home room. In the spring, Billy Walter was host at a very delightful party to his home room 8-I.

At the end of eight months we landed on the Planetoid, Little Knowledge, which is a long way from our destination. Here we were given a four months' furlough in which to rest and to prepare for the next hop.

September, 1935, saw us resume our journey to the Planet of Knowledge. Again we elected officers. They were, President, Gladys Gammon; Vice President, Jack Faucette; Secretary, Mary Elizabeth Hanner, and Treasurer, Kenneth Thacker. On the second stage of our trip our teachers were: Mrs. Graham, Miss Holt, Mr. Irwin and Mr. Reep. On the Barker staff this year we have Marjorie Hunter as reporter and Oakell Barton as music editor. Juanita Owens was appointed to the DOE-WAH-JACK Staff and is also, along with Crawford Gibson and others, a member of the Debating Team. Many class members are in the Dramatic and Latin clubs. In the book week festival, sponsored by the P.-T. A., our ninth grade Latin Class won two prizes: first prize for the most artistic costumes, and second prize for the second largest cast. We presented "Julius Caesar Bringing Cleopatra to Rome," and I doubt if it was celebrated with much more grandeur back in B.C., than that night.

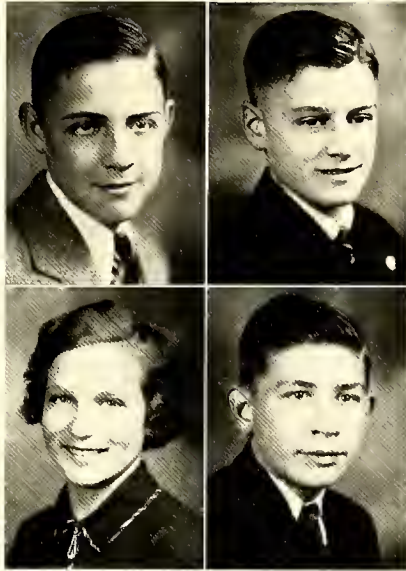

To have a good varsity team in any sport there must be a good second string, and some of the sophomores have helped to make this, and have shown that they are good players by putting up good fights in class football. Sawing, tooting, and singing themselves to fame in the music department of our school are many sophomores.

Throughout the year we have had some very enjoyable socials. One of these was a trip to the home of one of our teachers to see his collection of foreign articles. This visit was educational as well as entertaining.

All in all this is a great class and by the time that much longed for Planet is reached, we will go down in history as one of the greatest classes in the history of B. H. S., or any other school.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

THERE are no intentions of writing a volume for the immortals or for our children's grandchildren to study, but only a brief history of the Freshmen of B. H. S., and the credit goes to the makers of History, not the historian.

On September 24, 1935, about one hundred and twenty-five eager-eyed eighth grade pupils hurried back to our beloved High School to begin our Freshman year. We were eager to begin work and our aim was to really accomplish something during our school term 1935-1936. We went about our hard tasks joyfully.

A class meeting was held to elect our class officers. They were: President, Victor Bryan; Secretary, Mary Frances Bee, and Treasurer, Hamilton Wiggins. These people play an outstanding part in the freshman class history, others following closely behind.

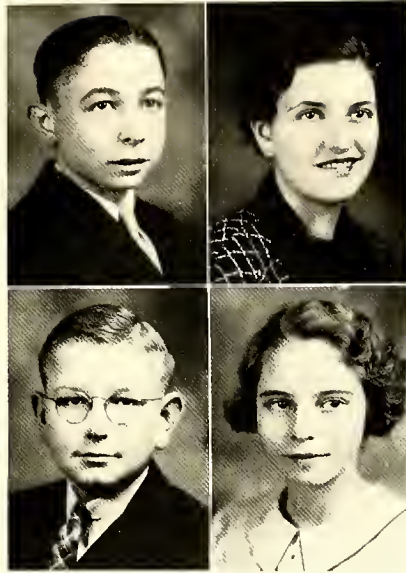

More pupils are joining us. There are about one hundred and thirty of us now. New interests claim our attention. Our boys are joining in the large field of athletics. Every pupil has a chance to develop some musical ability. Mr. E. F. Rhodes is in charge of our musical careers. There are Glee Clubs, Orchestras, Bands and other organizations. Some are interested in the Dramatic Club of which Mr. P. L. Irwin is sponsor, others in the Debating Club which Mr. Reep directs.

We have part of the responsibility of reëstablishing our school paper. We are hoping to carry this responsibility safely through our freshman year.

Records show that about one-third of us are natives of Burlington. Pupils have joined us from Danville, Va., Pennsylvania, Chattanooga, Tenn., Durham, N. C., New Jersey, Greensboro, N. C., and many other places.

In the future we hope to accomplish more than any other freshman class that Burlington High has ever had.

HILLCREST SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

1934-1935

A FRESHMAN band of gypsies, wandering through the years, finds itself lost in the hills of Hillcrest Junior High School. Being accustomed to only one chieftain in bygone years, the band is confused by the many different camps and chieftains now presented. In one camp the elusive Latin waits to be captured; in another waits the "Dragon" Mathematics, in its labyrinths of forest dense with figures. Other camps give to this restless gypsy band the things they really love—singing, acting, painting, and other enjoyable activities.

During the winter months the gypsies are most successful in all sorts of contests. With spring comes the wanderlust which takes the band to a strange city to sing around another campfire to compete with other gypsy bands. Success followed even there.

1935-1936

September brought all tribes back from their wanderings in distant lands. New chieftains, a fenced-in camping ground, new gypsies greeted them.

Senior Gypsies! Leaders in Junior High! What a goal to have achieved! Rough roads to Algebra, Latin and Biology are conquered by the kind aid of chieftains and by the zeal of each gypsy. A new tribe, calling themselves "Travelers" trekked east to view remains and relics of ancient gypsies.

Wanderlust again! On to the nation's capital in April. On to a new camping ground in September. On and on always—through the years!

ERWIN GANT.

HILLCREST FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

SEPTEMBER 16, 1935! What a glorious adventure began on that day. We were really in Junior High last year, but our subjects then were so like those of the year previous that we hardly realized the change from grammar school to Junior High. Now we are introduced to new studies. New adventures in the land of the Romans! New worlds to conquer in our Literature! New parallel that we love—oh, well it isn't so bad.

As Father Time marched slowly but surely along, our new adventures became more varied and more interesting. One bright October morning we meandered into History class—then began the Revolutionary War, although history states that it began in May. A hand appears. Who can be so bold as to volunteer an answer to a question? Ah, I might have known! 'Tis Jimmy Walker, our AAA lad. He's going to be a lawyer. Lawyers? Arguments? Debates? Oh, yes, indeed, the eighth grade can debate!

Let's shift the scene. Some artist has drawn a map of Ethiopia. From that map, lines; at the end of the lines, figures! Who? Jennings (Elephant Ears) Byran, our class arbitrator, and D. O. B. Bell. The artist? Billy Younger, the wonder boy. Wonder what he'll do next.

Soccer Stars? Oh yes, we have 'em. Howard Blanchard and Dexter Brown. Dexter has plenty of pep in Soccer but—. Then too, we have champion kickers and boxers.

If you want to know that Hillcrest Freshman Class is seventy-three strong and a forward looking bunch, just ask Edith McDade; she has all our names.

EDWIN STOREY.

SENIOR CLASS

(Apologies to Eugene Field)

The wooden desks are covered with dust
But sturdy and staunch they stand;
The names carved there with knife blades sharp,
Are those of the Senior Band.

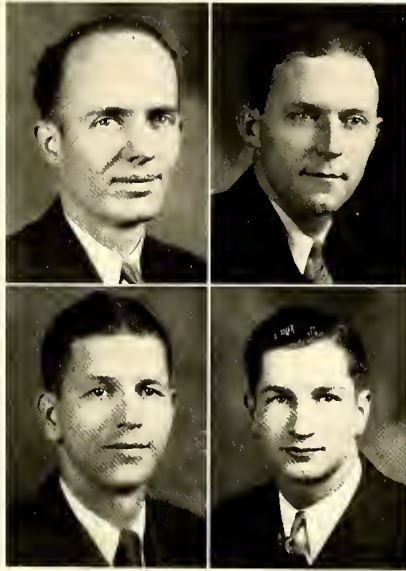

Time was when the wooden desks were new,
And their tops were shining fair;
And that is the time the Senior Crew
Came to settle there.

"You can go, when I come," the 3:10 bell said
"If you won't make much noise,"
So gaily, without a thought or a care,
They awaited the bell, these girls and boys.

But they were loyal to the Gold and Black
All of this Senior Crew
Oh the years are many, the years are long
But the wooden desks are true!

Aye, faithful to the Seniors they stand
Each in the same old place,
Awaiting the scratch of some idle hand,
The gum from some busy face.

And they wonder, as waiting the long years thru
In the rooms now so bleak and bare,
Where are the Seniors of '36
Since they whooped and holloed there?

Athletic Resume

Burlington High School has made considerable progress in Athletics in the last 4 or 5 years. Better equipment is now available for the boys taking part than ever before. Soccer, a new sport, has been played for two years and promises to become a major sport. The New Athletic Field at Hillcrest marks a big advancement and its 2,500 seating capacity for football and baseball will enable the Athletic Department to buy better equipment for other sports.

B. H. S. teams have been very successful in the last year. The 1935 baseball team played 22 games, losing two. The 1936 basketball and boxing teams are in the midst of good seasons and the 1936 baseball edition promises to do as well as the 1935. The 1936 football season carries a very heavy schedule but the prospects for a winning team are bright.

The Athletic Department wishes to provide some sort of physical training for even more than the one hundred who now take part in B. H. S. Athletics.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

MISS NETTIE DAILEY	President	MISS MADELINE CATES	Secretary
MR. WALTER BAIN	Vice President	MR. HERBERT COBLE	Treasurer
MRS. E. S. W. DAMERON			Historian

ON April the twenty-eighth 1935, more than 225 alumni of Burlington High School met in Broad Street Cafeteria for a banquet. There were representatives from practically every class. Of the three members of the class of 1904, two were present—Lillie Dale Patterson, now Mrs. L. B. Whitted, and Rose Lee Patterson, both of Burlington. Eugene May was introduced as a member of the 1912 championship baseball team. Joseph Robertson was introduced as the first boy to graduate from Burlington High School. The class of 1905, numbering six, was the only group having one hundred per cent attendance at the banquet. The class of 1919 was the only one to graduate more boys than girls.

A permanent organization was formed, with the following officers elected: Miss Nettie E. Dailey, president; Walter E. Bain, vice president; Miss Madeline Cates, secretary; Herbert W. Coble, treasurer; Mrs. E. S. W. Dameron, historian.

It has been a far cry from the first Burlington School of 1901, with its single building, housing a student body of only 384 pupils, to the Burlington Graded Schools of today, with four modern schools located conveniently in the several wards, and the other schools in the nearby vicinity under the same supervision. There are now 94 white teachers, sanitary cafeterias that provide the most nourishing food for all the pupils, mighty parent-teacher associations, with numberless useful functions, commodious playgrounds, public library, etc.

On account of the disastrous effects of the depression upon schools in general, and upon the Burlington Schools in particular, the present management is still greatly handicapped and embarrassed, our citizens having recently ignobly failed to vote the necessary funds for the extension of the term. This situation does not permit our present able superintendent and his excellent faculty a fair chance at the children of Burlington, but with the return of normal times this deplorable condition of affairs will certainly be changed.

It is high time for the good people of Burlington to realize that they cannot afford longer to neglect to remedy this situation.

Surely all members of the alumni association will be alert to their plain duty in this regard.

AN APPRECIATION

We, the Doe-Wah-Jack Staff and the Student Body of Burlington High School, wish to extend our thanks and appreciation to the many business and professional men and women of our City who have so graciously and willingly participated in the advertising section of this book, without which the publication would have been an impossibility. We wish to assure you, our friends, that we will in turn support and cooperate with you in every manner possible. Again we thank you.

Z Z Y DEFINITIONS

A door knob is a thing a revolving door goes around without. . . . A straw is something which you drink through two of them. . . . Cobble stones are a pavement that people would rather were asphalt than. . . . A fern is a plant that you are supposed to water it once a day but if you don't it dies, and if you do, it dies anyway, only not so soon. . . . Summer is a season that in winter you wish you could keep your house warm as. . . . A cartoon is a funny drawing that makes people laugh when other people claim cigarettes come in it. . . . Cream is something which dry cereal doesn't taste as good without it, unless you use milk but haven't any. . . . And one car they are all dying to ride in is the hearse.

Porter: Miss, your train.

Ima McIver: My man, why do you say "your train," when you know it belongs to the railroad station?

Porter: Dummo, Miss. Why do you say "my man," when you knows ah belongs to mah wife?

Sam Fitch: Your steak is like the weather this evening, madam, rather raw.

Landlady: Indeed! By the way, your board bill is like the weather, too—unsettled!

Ruth Moser: I was outspoken in my sentiments at the club today.

Ella Rae Burke: Really, I can't believe it. Who outspoke you?

"Pay your taxes with a smile, advised Miss Frazier.

"I should love to," answered Stanley Lowe, "but they insist on cash."

Doctor: You've had a pretty close call. It's only your strong constitution that pulled you through.

Margaret L.: Well, doctor, remember that when you make out your bill.

Onnie Smith: Mrs. Hunter, may I write my theme for this time on chewing gum?

Mrs. Hunter: Well, Onnie, I really think plain notebook paper is more commonly used.

Mr. Leonard: I'm a man of few words.

Mr. Rhodes: I know, I'm married, too.

Carolyn Andrews: Virginia, isn't it funny that hats cost more than radios.

Virginia Spoon: But they don't. What makes you think so?

Carolyn: Well, a sign in a window back there said, "Hats, $10 up," and we just passed another window with a sign that says, "Radios, $10 down."

Miss Cox: Dorothy, how do the foreign dishes compare to the English ones?

Dorothy Gillis: Oh, they break just the same.

A. G. Thompson: Father, one of the boys at school said I looked like you.

Father: What did you say?

A. G.: I had to skip it; he's a lot bigger than me.

Coach: Which sports do you like the best?

Iris S.: Those who know when it's time to go home.

Max Wagoner: No girl ever made a fool of me.

William Wheeler: Who did it, then?

Miss Lewis: How many seasons are there?

Earl Way: Two—baseball and football.

Mr. Ketner: Son, what does this 60 on your report card mean?
Ed: That's the temperature of the room, Father.

Kathryn T.: I have a dress for every day in the week.
Ima M.: Where is it?
Kathryn: This is it I have on.

Ruth Moore: Well, everything I say goes.
Jack Sessoms: Come in the garage and tell it to my Ford.

Rom. Graves: The lunch room isn't half so noisy today as it was yesterday.
Tom Haynes: No wonder! Didn't near as many people get soup today.

Mr. Anglin: Do you want a large or a small picture?
Carleen Bryan: Small, please.
Mr. Anglin: Then close your mouth.

Lottie Pruitt: At last I've found perpetual motion.
Marguerite Phillips: Where?
Lottie: Fred Isley's smile.

Adolphus: Say, is she dead yet?

Mr. Reynolds: What would you do if you woke up and found yourself in a dark dungeon?

Jack Perry: I'd roll over and go back to sleep.

Mrs. Perkins: Doris, run across the street and see how old Miss Brown is this morning.

Five minutes later Doris came home: "Mother, Miss Brown said to tell you, it wasn't any of your business how old she was."

Stanford Hudgins: What is the date, please?

Mr. Rhodes: Never mind the date. The examination is more important.

Robert Bryan: Porter, when is your sister, Maida, thinking of getting married?

Porter Lea: Constantly!

Mrs. Hunter: Jack, I want you to promise me you won't use two words, one is "swell" and the other is "lousy." Will you promise me that?

Jack Perry: Sure. What are the words?

Adolphus Sorrell: If you are tired of dancing, let's sit down and have a little "tête-à-tête."

Ruth Walters: No, thank you. After such a big supper I really couldn't eat a thing.

Miss Cox: And whatever on earth made you write a paragraph like that?

Elizabeth Warlick: I quoted it from Dickens.

Miss Cox: Beautiful lines, aren't they?

Mr. Rhodes: Tell me, Sam, what has become of your ethics?

Sam Webster: Oh, I traded it long ago for a Hudson.

Marie Hearne: My husband must be a strong, silent man, full of grit.

Elizabeth Spoon: What you want is a dumb dustman.

Sarah Cates: I'm going to take up horse-back riding; it will increase my social standing.

Virginia Spoon: I can't vouch for the social part, my dear, but it will increase your standing, no doubt.
